CHAFFEE CO. BANQUET

EMPLOYEES OF GLENDALE STORE ATTEND ELABORATE ANNUAL FUNCTION IN PASADENA

The annual banquet of the H. G. Chaffee Company and its employees in the grocery business was held one evening last week in Pasadena and all the employees of the Glendale store were present. When it is remembered that this company conducts twenty-five retail grocery establishments in Southern California, it is easy to understand that it was a big affair. The banquet was spread at the Teacup Inn and the guest list included wives of employees who were glad to have a hand in arranging the floral decorations and serving the meal. While it was in progress an orchestra entertained with excellent music and after the coffee had been served a program of toasts over which P. E. Chaffee, General Manager, presided as toastmaster, was enjoyed. Each store responded as its number was called, the employees rising and making report for the various departments of that particular establishment. Then Mr. McCann gave a reading entitled "Katrina's Setting Hen," which won much applause. C. L. Heald spoke of market conditions and explained why some products are now off the market. H. H. Lestic reviewed selling plans for the holidays and the extra facilities that must be provided for taking care of the increased tourist population expected to reach California about that time.

H. G. Chaffee, president of the company, was the next speaker and after congratulating his employees on the fine work they are doing in building up the business of the corporation, gave them a surprise by announcing that he had just completed arrangements to provide every employee of the company with free life and disability insurance without cost to the employees. This naturally evoked tremendous applause. In explaining the plan he stated that all employees and officials who have been with the company six months or more will automatically receive life insurance policies which will increase for every year of employment until a maximum of $5000 is reached and for heads of departments it is somewhat higher. The policies will also be retroactive, that is, an employee who has been with the company five years will receive the maximum policy immediately. Should an employee be permanently disabled he will receive the full face value of the policy within six months after the disability is proved. The insurance is secured under the so-called "group plan" and no physical examinations are necessary.

Senator G. W. Cartwright, representing the Commercial Federation of Southern California, made a fine address on the mutual interests of employer and employee, touching on Americanism. The meeting closed with the distribution of the latest number of the "Ragged Robin," house organ of the Chaffee Company. Those present from Glendale were: Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Freeman, N. W. McBryde, P. G. King, J. H. Jackson, Ernest Collins, S. W. Whitaker.

HEALTH TALKS

DR. RAND'S TALKS BRING OUT VALUABLE INFORMATION

Dr. H. F. Rand gave the health talk Sunday night at the Seventh-day Adventist church. The question-box feature of these weekly lectures appeals quite strongly to the students of health who attend regularly. Some of the questions and answers were as follows:

"What causes headaches?" Nearly all headaches are caused by poisons in the system not properly eliminated.

Should fruit and bread be eaten together?

The acid of fruits neutralizes the alkalinity of the saliva and prevents starch digestion. Finish eating the starch before taking the fruit into the mouth or vice versa. Sub-acid fruit and starch is not so bad a combination as acid fruits and starch, but at the best it is hard to digest.

Is cinnamon an irritant to the system? Cinnamon, unlike other condiments, is not an irritant to the system. Taken in water, it acts as a disinfectant to the digestive system.

If one has weak digestion, what can be done to improve it? One of the simplest means of calling out the digestive juices is to eat a dextrinized food, such as zwieback, corn (Continued on Page 4)

LIVELY ELKS' MEETING

BIG DELEGATION FROM LODGE
99 ADDS TO HILARITY OF TURKEY DISTRIBUTION

Another characteristic big meeting was held by the Elks' Lodge Monday evening when no less than three hundred visitors were present in addition to the regular members. Many notables were there including Paul Robinson, Past Exalted Ruler of Lodge 99, Exalted Ruler Elect of Eddie Murphy of the baby lodge that is being organized at Redondo. He was accompanied by about 20 fellow members.

A conspicuous delegation was the drill team and band of Lodge 99 in jinks array, yama yama and clown costumes of every conceivable color and combination of colors and decorations. These paraded the business thoroughfares of Glendale before the meeting, marching to the excellent music of the band which won first prize at the tournament in San Diego a few weeks ago. The special reason for their coming at this time was to tender an invitation to the local lodge to participate in the big ceremonials to be put on by Lodge 99 December 17th at the Shrine Auditorium in Los Angeles when one thousand new members are to be initiated. Preceding that meeting will be a parade through the down-town streets of Los Angeles of Elks from all the lodges of Southern California. It will be one of the biggest affairs in the annals of the Southern California Elks.

Announcement was also made of the annual memorial exercises of the Glendale Lodge, which will this year be held December 7th at 2:30 in the afternoon.

The most hilarious feature of the session was the distribution of the Thanksgiving turkeys for which there was sharp competition which yielded a very satisfactory amount for the lodge's Christmas fund. Two hundred turkeys were on hand, but two hundred and fifty were disposed of and the turkeys to meet the deficiency will be provided. Sidney Simon drew the first one, a 15-pound bird.

Following the session a Thanksgiving lunch which included cider and apples, was served in the jinks room.

ENTERTAINING ILLINOIS RELATIVES

Claud Berger of 403 East Lomita is entertaining for a few days his aunt, Mrs. R. Shaver, of DeKalb, who recently came to Southern California with her brother, Plummer Rogers, of Polo, Illinois, who has spent the past seven winters in California. He was a guest in the Berger home Monday and called upon his old acquaintance, A. T. Cowan. This is Mrs. Shaver's first visit to the state, and she expects to remain until the first of April. She is making her headquarters with a niece in Lamanda Park.

FOOTHILL CLUB

BEAUTIFULLY ENTERTAINED AT HOME OF MRS. E. B. WYMAN ON N. MARYLAND

Mrs. E. B. Wyman, of 1326 North Maryland avenue, entertained members of the Foothill Club last Friday afternoon. In honor of the event the living rooms of the Wyman home were beautifully decorated with seasonal flowers, zinnias and chrysanthemums predominating. A good share of the afternoon was devoted to the completion of the quilts which the club has been making to be given away at Christmas time. An interesting feature of the session was the reading of a beautifully expressed, but pathetic, letter of thanks written by the mother of the little French boy of five years who is the Godchild of the club and supported by it. The letter was composed at the solicitation of the child who wished to thank the ladies to whom he is indebted.

At the close of their work the ladies were called to the dining room and seated around a big table where a delicious two-course luncheon was served by the hostess, Mrs. William S. Porter, president of the club, was present and had presided at the business session after several months of absence. Other members present were: Miss Ellen Williams, Mesdames W. C. Hewitt, C. H. Toll, W. C. Cutler, E. D. Wyman, Edward K. Barnes, G. K. Barnes, J. W. Elliott, A. M. Hunt, Julius Kranz, A. F. Priest, M. J. Oliver, C. H. Crawford, W. P. Thompson, Perce Curtis, J. B. Taber, Charles Beggs, George Larky, E. E. Dana and Miss Maud Salisbury. Mesdames E. R. Werdin and J. I. Wernette were special guests of the day.

ANOTHER BALKAN WAR FEARED

BRITISH PRESS DECLARES IF D'ANNUNZIO IS ALLOWED TO PROCEED UNCHECKED IT WILL LEAD TO WAR

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, Nov. 25.—The British Press is expressing fears that another Balkan war is imminent with Italy and Jugo Slavia playing the leading roles. Many believe that if Gabriel d'Annunzio is allowed to go on unchecked, the situation he is creating in Dalmatia and Fiume will lead to war. The Pall Mall Gazette believes the peace conference must act against d'Annunzio and enforce its orders if war is to be prevented. It is pointed out that d'Annunzio is holding Fiume and Zara against the direct orders of his government and of the peace conference.

EARTHQUAKE IN SAN FRANCISCO

TWO SHARP SHOCKS THIS MORNING SHAKE BAY CITY
BUT CAUSE NO DAMAGE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25.—Two sharp earthquake shocks shook San Francisco and vicinity at 3:05 o'clock this morning. No damage was done.

THE 1920 NATIONAL CAMPAIGN

WASHINGTON FULL OF POLITICIANS AND PRESS AGENTS
BOOMING PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Both republicans and democrats began organizing their forces for the 1920 national campaign today. The city is full of political leaders and press agents who are booming candidates and making arrangements for the meeting of the Republican National Committee December 10th and the Democratic National Committee meeting January 8th when the cities where the national conventions will be held will be named. Announcements of new presidential candidates are expected to follow rapidly.

There appear to be many divergent ideas as to what the big issue of the campaign will be. Senator Poindexter of Washington, who was one of the first Republicans to announce his candidacy, says the big issue will be Bolshevism.

Many believe that Senator Lodge is willing to run on a program opposing the league of nations. Senator Johnson of California is standing on a "great American" platform. Governor Lowden and General Leonard Wood have made no declarations as to their platforms.

There was a revival of the talk that President Wilson will run again or at least take an active part in the campaign if the peace treaty is made an issue, despite his denials. Many believe that former Secretary McAdoo is bidding for the labor vote on account of his statement yesterday upholding the coal miners' wage demands.

Other Democratic possibilities are maintaining silence in regard to their principles in the campaign.

GENTLEMAN TRAIN ROBBER

MESSAGES SIGNED "BILL CARLISLE" RECEIVED BY THE AUTHORITIES AT CHEYENNE AND FRISCO

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

DENVER, Nov. 25.—William Carlisle, the "gentleman train robber," today wrote the warden of Wyoming from Denver denying that he robbed the Los Angeles Limited and declaring that he is trying "to be good." He asked the authorities to give him a chance. Some here thought that Carlisle was one of the three bandits who robbed the Midwest Social Club of $20,000 this morning but the police say they do not believe that Carlisle participated.

CABINET CONSIDERS COAL STRIKE

IS ADDRESSED BY GARFIELD AND PALMER; REPORTS SHOW ALARMING SHORTAGE IN MIDDLE WEST

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The cabinet met this morning with a determination to force a settlement of the coal strike. Fuel Administrator Garfield attended the meeting.

Attorney General Palmer, in a statement, strongly indorsed the position Garfield has taken in the negotiations.

Secretary of Labor Wilson declared "the atmosphere needs clarifying before a settlement can be reached."

In the meantime reports showed that the middle western states are on the verge of a serious industrial tie-up on account of coal shortage.

ASSASSINATION AND REVOLUTION

PLOT TO KILL PREMIER OF GREECE UNCOVERED AT ATHENS AND MANY ARRESTS MADE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, Nov. 25.—An Athens dispatch received here today said that a plot to assassinate Premier Venizelos and overthrow the government had been uncovered and many arrests had been made.

GLENDAL DANCERS

PARTICIPATE IN SPECTACULAR
"SCENE IN BUTTERFLY MAN"
BEING PRODUCED BY L. CODY

A group of Glendale girls, pupils of Mrs. Pearl Keller (Brattain) are having interesting experiences and incidentally accumulating Christmas funds by participating in an elaborate and spectacular scene in "The Butterfly Man," which Lou Cody is producing at the Astra Studio, on Verdugo Road, this city.

As the play developed the need for such talent, Mr. Cody, his leading lady, Christine Pereda, and his director, Ida May Park visited the Keller Studio and asked to see the work of pupils. So delighted were they with what they saw that sixteen or seventeen of the older girls were engaged and about half a dozen of the tiny tots. Probably six rehearsals will be necessary, but they take place during the day and are being arranged as to time so they will not interfere with school work. The older girls are paid $7 apiece for each rehearsal and the little folks $5 each. Mrs. Keller dances in the act and also directs it, and the pupils are taken from the Keller studio and returned to it by auto.

The Astra Company is building a big set for the scene consisting of a ball room as large as the one in the studio and a stage to face it as spectacular as the ordinary theatre stage.

MILK SAVED

BOLD THIEF FORSAKES HER USUAL HAUNTS WHEN POLICE APPEAR

A bit of delicate detective work has been undertaken by the Glendale Police Department at the special request of residents on East Harvard street and it has now advanced to a stage where it is felt that no betrayal of confidence will result from the publication of particulars. For several months milk has been disappearing with more or less regularity in that neighborhood. On one morning four quarts were missing. One patron of the dairy lost eight quarts in one month. The victims took counsel together and agreed they would be willing to donate to any one really needy if it could be managed openly and without such annoyance and sacrifice on their part. A mysterious woman was charged with the thefts but no one knew who she was or felt at liberty to pursue the matter so the city police department was called in consultation. They undertook to run the matter down by setting a watch and one householder who had suffered somewhat more than the rest agreed to give the watchman shelter that he might be on the premises at the early hour in which the milk usually disappeared, but it was decided that a more appropriate lookout would be the Episcopal Church. Milk patrons went to bed convinced that this time their milk would be rescued from the clutches of the highwaywoman and slept well. At 6 o'clock a. m. they were awakened by beams from the watchman's flash lantern, and a confab between the milkman, the watchman, the watchman's dog. It served its purpose, there was no visit from the mysterious stranger and all the milk bottles were safe.

H. E. FRY PROMOTED

MADE SECRETARY OF INTERNATIONAL Y. M. C. A. COMMITTEE, L. A. HEADQUARTERS

H. E. Fry, who has been in charge of the Y. M. C. A. at the harbor at San Pedro, has been made secretary of the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A., which has its headquarters in the Central Y. M. C. A. building in Los Angeles, where it occupies a suite of eight rooms. This change is very agreeable to Mrs. Fry as it will enable her husband to return every night to his home on Cerritos avenue. The secretaryship he formerly held at San Pedro has not yet been filled.

C. C. COOPER BUYS HOME

C. C. Cooper and family are now located at 302 North Central avenue in their new home recently purchased from Mrs. Dudley. Mr. Cooper is a recent arrival in Glendale and succeeds W. W. Lee in the First National Bank of this city. The sale was consummated through the agency of Kerker and McMillan.

NEAR ROBBERY

MAN ENTERS WOLBACH HOME
AT DUSK, IS DISCOVERED AND ESCAPES

A near robbery was staged at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wolbach on Myrtle avenue, Saturday night. It was frustrated, but, as usual, the thief got away. The twelve-year-old son of the Wolbach's was playing in the yard, his parents being away. It was about six o'clock and getting quite dark. He went to an outside water tap beneath a window, observed the electric light come on and looking through the window saw a strange man there, of whom he could discover little beyond the fact that he was wearing a derby hat, and that he was turning on the light of the piano lamp. He called to one of his playmates down the street, "A man is in our house!" and instantly an auto which had been standing a few doors away put on all speed, the burglar rushed from the Wolbach house, jumped on the running board of the auto and was gone.

THANKSGIVING BASKETS

A special committee, appointed by Mrs. A. A. Barton, temporary chairman of the Welfare Council, met this morning at the Red Cross Shop on Brand boulevard to make arrangements to fill Thanksgiving baskets for any persons of families reported to them as being in need. Mrs. E. L. Young, philanthropy chairman of the P.-T. A. Federation, Mrs. E. D. Yard, Mrs. S. Townsend (representing Glendale Sanitarium), and with them are meeting the Welfare Worker, Mrs. Robert Blackburn, and Mrs. Barton. The committee will probably meet at the same place tomorrow if names of the needy are sent in. Mrs. Blackburn has arranged to be at her desk in the City Hall to look after Welfare Work Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday mornings.

CHAPTER A. H.

Chapter A. H. of the P. E. O. enjoyed a delightful all-day session at the home of Mrs. Andrew Stephenson, on South Central avenue, last week. Luncheon was served at noon, Mrs. Sala Logan and Mrs. Bessie Mabry being assisting hostesses. Mrs. Claud Case, president of Chapter B. A., was a guest, as was also Mrs. Webster. A Thanksgiving paper was read by Mrs. H. P. Goodwin, and a humorous paper by Mrs. Mabry. About twenty-one ladies were present.

AUTO COLLISION

Another auto collision occurred Monday afternoon, about 4:30, this time at Broadway and Brand. The principals in the affair were Al Moniot of this city, who was driving a car owned by Earl H. Thompson from East Broadway, south on Brand. He had turned around the button and was starting south when his front wheel on the right hand side was struck by a car driven by H. W. Wells, of Wineville, in which was a lady passenger. Wells was driving east on Broadway. The impact took off the wheel struck on the Thompson car. None of the passengers were hurt. Mr. Moniot is in the employ of the Roake Garage at Brand and Acacia.

MOUNTAIN BARONS

MRS. JONES TELLS OF THE ECONOMIC INDEPENDENCE OF KENTUCKIANS

Middle-aged citizens easily recall the days when the "independence of the farmer" was lauded and envied. We hear little about that now because the farmer in most parts of the country has had to accommodate himself to the spirit of the times and become a specialist rather than the diversified producer of earlier days. There are a few survivors of these barons, however, Mr. and Mrs. Mattison B. Jones found in their discovery one of the pleasantest experiences of their recent eastern trip.

After completing the business which took them to Washington they were free to travel for pleasure and chose to visit the old home of Mr. Jones in the Kentucky Mountains, eleven miles from a railroad. Here they found bountifully-spread tables and such independence as they had encountered nowhere else; for these dwellers in the mountains take their own wheat and corn to the local mill where it is made into flour and meal; they raise and cure (Continued on Page 3)

WILD HOLLY THREATENED WITH EXTINCTION

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25.—The Toyon, California's wild holly, is threatened with extinction, Mrs. Bertha M. Rice, secretary of the California Wild Flower League, warned today, asserting that extermination of these Christmas berries can be prevented only by extremely careful handling in the future.

"The breaking and tearing of great branches of berries from these shrubs and trees is a common practice," she said. "The chief offenders are automobilists who throng the public highways Sundays and holidays, sometimes mutilating these trees beyond repair. Another menace is the increased demand for red berries."

"Public sentiment has not been sufficiently aroused to take cognizance of their threatened extermination and unless this wholesale destruction, as conducted by unthinking persons, can be curbed, it is our intention eventually to have this matter brought before the legislature in hopes of having laws enacted which will afford some sort of protection."

CONVENTION OF AUTOMOBILE DEALERS

OAKLAND, Nov. 25.—The California Automobile Trade association, comprised of the leading firms affiliated with various branches of the automobile industry in the state and having a total membership of more than 2800 firms, began a two days' convention here today.

There are to be craft meetings, each branch of the automobile business holding its separate gatherings and discussing methods intended to promote better conduct of its particular trade.

Mrs. Francis Gilman, who was confined to her home for some time recuperating from the effects of a fall down stairs, is now able to be out and declares she is all right again.

Francis Bacon of 1335 South San Fernando Road, who has been quite seriously ill of pneumonia, is now convalescent and making rapid strides towards recovery. His physician thinks he will be out in two or three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell have returned from their ranch in Wyoming and are now at home with their son and daughter on Kenneth Road. They will entertain on Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Mitchell and family.

The City Library is the recipient of a valuable file of papers containing accounts of General Grant's inauguration as president, the assassination of McKinley, and other historic events of importance. C. J. Orff was the donor.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Webster, who recently sold the house in which they have been living at 1258 South Maryland, have vacated the property to the new owners, Mr. and Mrs. Verdugo. The Websters are building on North Orange street.

Mrs. Flora Seymour, of 349 West Colorado, was entertained Monday by Mrs. Nellie Pennyman of 1259 South Maryland avenue. Mrs. Seymour has recently returned from a three weeks' stay in Alhambra as the guest of the Thompson family whom she knew years ago in Colorado.

Mrs. Roscoe Jones of 327 West Cerritos avenue and her little daughter returned Sunday evening from Lancaster. Mrs. Reg Morgan returned with them and will be a guest in the Jones home for a while. She formerly resided in Glendale occupying what was known as the Payne home.

Dr. Caroline Paine-Jackman, osteopathic physician, who purchased a home and opened an office in Glendale a few weeks ago is a believer in printers' ink. She published the announcement of the establishment of her office in Glendale in the Evening News as well as mailing out announcements. On the second day she had calls from three patients and is jubilant over her success since that time.

Mrs. Wagner, of Columbus, Ohio, mother of Mrs. Hadley Brown and Mrs. George Mitchell, Jr., is spending the winter in Glendale.

Miss Vivian Ogden, who has been the assistant of Mrs. Grace Yarbrough, the milliner, is leaving Wednesday for her home in San Diego, after a three months' residence in Glendale.

Miss Grace Crampton of 213 East Chestnut street, who has been visiting old friends in Kansas for several months, returned to her home at 213 East Chestnut street Sunday morning. With a shortage of coal looming large as a possibility if coal production is not resumed by the miners, she is glad to get back to California and its sunshine.

Friends of Mrs. McGahie, of San Francisco, sister of Mrs. Daniel Campbell, will be interested to know that she is the proud and happy mother of a little daughter, born last Friday. Mrs. McGahie, who before her marriage was Miss Louise McPeak, was graduated from Glendale Union High and has a big circle of acquaintances here.

Stanley Frenz, Chairman of Sick and Relief Committee of the Glendale Elks' Lodge, report that his committee has already begun to accumulate stock for the lodge's Christmas donation which may exceed the record of last year. At that time sixty-four boxes of which the average cost was $7.30 were given out, besides an expenditure of $150 for toys and luxuries.

The Philanthropic Committee of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, of which Mrs. Oliver O. Clark is chairman, reports that it has already made and prepared for distribution 130 garments to be divided between the Maternity Cottage in Los Angeles, the Children's Hospital, Day Nursery, and Crittenden Home, besides having a reserve supply for special calls.

Little Katherine Cross, daughter of H. D. Cross of 329 Mira Loma avenue, who has been so desperately ill of typhoid fever at a Los Angeles hospital, is now making steady improvement and it is expected she can be brought home in about two weeks. Her father, who was called from the north because of her condition, is still here. He is International Boy Scout Commander of the Pacific Coast.

MR. AND MRS. GOODE ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Goode of Myrtle avenue entertained at cards a few nights ago a group of their friends, the party including Mr. and Mrs. McGinnis of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. H. Belew and Mr. and Mrs. Wolbach of this city. The Goodes are moving to the De Luxe Apartments the 25th because the house they have been occupying has been sold.

MOUNTAIN BARONS

their own meat; they, of course, grow their own vegetables and fruits. Nothing required on their tables do they have to buy except sugar and coffee. Their water is drawn from their own wells and they dig out the coal they need on their own farms. As Mrs. Jones expressed their enviable state of independence:

"They could stay there a million years and not be disturbed by strikes. They are, however, completely buried in the mountains except for their churches and their schools which have been wonderfully improved, and they have contact with the outside world when at Christmas time the young people who have left home return for an annual reunion at the old homestead. Then there is the annual summer camp meeting when they count it a joy to extend their hospitality to twenty and thirty a day and include the feeding of the teams as well.

"The government has done a great deal for them agriculturally and has instructed them in improved crop methods and the most prolific varieties and they now raise corn crops three times as large as they used to produce, in fact, they had finer looking corn than we saw in Kansas or any of the great corn states we passed through.

The mountains of Kentucky are very rich in veins of coal and these are now being opened up. There is going to be a great deal of money made in that part of the state. Some have already become very wealthy.

"I would not be satisfied to live as they do, but I had to admit they did not lack for anything essential. I never saw such loaded tables anywhere. When the food regulations came out during the war they tried to observe them, but it resulted in waste of food so they gave it up. They have their own way of living and enjoy it. Every once in a while one flies away from the home nest out into the world, but these adventurers always enjoy going back."

From the picture Mrs. Jones has drawn the thought of the Thanksgiving feasts that will be spread in that land where stuffed turkeys, chickens and roast pork are everyday luxuries, where there is no shortage of milk, butter or eggs are enough to make the mouth water in imagination.

GLENDALE DANCERS

scenes ever presented on the screen. It represents a scene within a scene—a ball room filled with dancers facing a stage on which the Greek dance is given for the entertainment of the ball room guests. As described by those familiar with the scene, the stage is centered by a big balloon held in leash by the sixteen Greek dancers who hold it by gay scarfs and pilot it to the center of the ball room in a pretty dance. Suspended from the balloon is a basket containing the little tots who pelt the dancers with flowers, and at a certain point hundreds of toy balloons are released which float around the ball room and are tossed and buffeted by the dancers. In the play as it will appear on the screen the climax occurs in this scene where a lighted cigar is tossed and ignites the balloon, the children dropping into the arms of their parents below, and the Butterfly Man effecting a thrilling rescue. That part of the scene is off stage as far as these dancers are concerned and is managed in the clever way that movie companies have of cutting and combining films.

Just when the play will be released no one knows; but it should certainly draw a big house when it is put on at the Palace Grand, as it undoubtedly will be.

The list of those taking part includes besides Mrs. Keller (Brattain) and her assistant Mrs. Emily Hills, Nell Cassidy, Esther Ralston, Mrs. Lucile Barnes Meighan, Marjorie Hart, Jessie Dutton, Verena Stevens, Frances Lawson, Eloene Truitt, Catherine Guthrie, Harriet Cook, Dorothy Salyer, Louise Halenbeck, Louise Murna, Miss Emily Hills, and Cecelia Lyon and Irene Mauk, the two last mentioned being dressed as Greek heralds.

In the group of little ones are Beatrice Turner, Marie Brown, Evelyn Appel and Bettie Hagood.

Mrs. Park, the director, is very much pleased with the fine work the girls are doing.

Mrs. Ella Richardson left this morning for King City, where she will spend Thanksgiving with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Shives Mitchell, and her grandson, Master Billie Richardson Mitchell. Her son, John, who is attending school at Mount Tamalpais Military Academy, spent the week-end with his brother, Paul, at Stanford, and witnessed the big football game between Stanford and University of California.

OWN YOUR OWN HOME

Home Ownership and Good Citizenship Go Hand in Hand

The most satisfactory way to own a home is to build it. Hundreds of families have made that discovery since the government removed the ban on building. That is the reason so many new houses are going up in Glendale, though not enough to supply the demand.

We are co-operating with the man who wants to own his own home and we take great pride and satisfaction in the fact that we have aided many to realize this most commendable of ambitions, and in doing so have helped to build a better, bigger Glendale.

There are vacant lots in Glendale still; there are many who long to own their own homes and who can do so with a little assistance.

Let us get together and form a triple alliance: The building lot, the prospective home owner and Bentley's Building Service. The result will be another happy home.

HEALTH TALKS

flakes, granose biscuit or similar products before each meal. Masticate thoroughly. Avoid liquids as a first course. Choose something that requires chewing.

Dr. Rand quoted from a recent article by Geo. A. Soper, Ph. D., Major, Sanitary Corps, U. S. Army, on the efficacy of existing measures for the prevention of disease: "The specific measures that are employed for the prevention of disease may be grouped for consideration under the three heads of sanitation, board of health work and personal precautions. The relative efficacy of each under its appropriate head is indicated by the order in which it is placed in the subjoined list:

Sanitation
1. Public water supplies, water purification and the conserving of the sources from which drinking water is derived.
2. Sewerage and sewage disposal.

3. Land drainage for the elimination of stagnant water and mosquitoes.
4. Street cleaning and garbage and waste collections and disposition.

Board of Health Work
1. Isolation of the infectious sick, including quarantine, and the maintenance of special hospitals for contagious diseases.
2. The collection of vital statistics.

3. The preparation and employment of vaccines and serums.
4. The supervision of food and dairy products.

5. The sanitary inspection of dwelling places, industrial works and recreation places.
6. The regulation of plumbing.
7. The supervision of dangerous trades and occupations.

Personal Precautions
1. The avoidance of the presence of the infectious sick.
2. The proper disposal of bodily wastes.

3. Vaccination and inoculation.
4. Discrimination against obviously dangerous foods, drugs and beverages.
5. Avoidance of chill, excessive fatigue and other conditions believed to predispose to, or aggravate, disease.

6. Cleanliness.
Dr. Rand said it would be a good plan to tack this list on the wall for reference.

In England the result of elections is not announced for two weeks after the election is held, as Lady Astor, former American girl, found after she completed her recent spirited and sensational race for a seat in the House of Commons. We'll bet she wished about then that she was back in her little old U. S. A., where if election results are not announced two hours after the polls close, the crowd demands to know who has stolen the ballot box.

HOME INDUSTRY LEAGUE GROWING

A state-wide campaign for active members to be added to the present large majority, will bring the Home Industry League into the place of one of the largest and most influential state promotion bodies in the country.

President Baldwin Vale outlined the plan at the meeting of the league at the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, this week, whereby a survey of the entire state will be made before the membership campaign is begun. The drive will in all probability precede "Made in California Week," which is set for next May.

"The Home Industry League," declared President Vale, "has, through its watchfulness and knowledge of affairs, saved the state of California millions of dollars. We work zealously and ultimately for the patronage of California products, price and quality being equal.

"Now we are at the stage where we believe that the manufacturers should help support the good work of the unselfish upbuilding of California."

"The Home Industry League slogan, 'Keep the Money at Home and Support the State that Supports You,' declared James McDonough, general manager of the Mutual Biscuit Company, and one of the directors of the Home Industry League, "has become universal throughout California. Business houses are using it everywhere and manufacturers are trying to live up to it."

THE HARVEST

For three years organized radicalism hiding behind the cloak of labor, has blackmailed this nation. Honest labor was made a party to the outrage simply because it belonged to the organization which was being exploited for revolutionary ends. The public which is always friendly toward labor was deceived by the wolf cry of "capital vs. labor." Dynamiters and murders were "martyrized" as "heroes" of the "class war." All during the war this radical element held up the government as at the point of a gun and secured one demand after another. Radicalism was pampered in every way while it was always ready to bite the hand that fed it. Thinking men realized the danger and constantly pointed out that the fight was not one of capital vs. labor but that it was a straight fight of Americanism vs. anarchy.

Events have proved that they were right. The deadly plans of the I. W. W., the Bolshevik and every enemy of the United States came to light in the Boston police strike, the steel strike and the coal strike. In no uncertain manner has the public been shown that organized labor has been used as a shield behind which organized anarchy worked and that honest workmen have been blinded as much as the general public by the propaganda spread.

The climax to the near revolution which has been in progress in this country came at Centralia when overseas service men in the Armistice day parade were shot down in cold blood by the "martyrs" and "heroes" of organized radicalism that have been pampered and fattened and protected in this nation.

No longer can the issue be clouded by the false cry of "capital vs. labor." Industry has suffered without redress and with but slight protection against these organized anarchists.

The Centralia tragedy should burn the fact into the minds of all persons entrusted with enforcement of the law that the I. W. W. and all similar revolutionary organizations are engaged in war on the United States. They have followed guerilla methods and have enjoyed immunity. Wrecking machinery, defiling food, spiking logs, sowing sedition and obstructing the draft are only milder acts of war than open attacks on loyal citizens. Because they have been permitted to commit these lesser crimes with impunity, they have been emboldened to the greater crime of murder.

The Centralia boys who were murdered may be truly the saviors of their country as their death has finally awakened this nation to the peril threatening it.—The Manufacturer.

The most unfortunate feature about the discovery of perfect men and super women among our college students, is that some of them will now be induced by sensational newspapers to tell how they did it, in fourteen installments.
